examples of our work

We have been serving almost all of our clients for years.

medical telephone services

For a doctor's practice, we answer the phone and make appointments or call patients to book them in for appointments.

ticket marketing

we invite clients to visit trade fairs all year round for a las vegas trade fair agency and also sell tickets for them. we achieve a 12% sales quota.

insurance marketing

for an insurance agency from leads we call existing customers and invite them to an quick insurance check at the agency.

telesales

we are doing a telephone sales campaign for an italian olive oil producer. for this we call interested parties and offer the products.

lead generation

for an online travel agency, we generate interested parties by telephone. to do this, we ask private households about their travel plans and offer a free quote.

social media agency onboarding

we invite target customers to virtual webinars for a social media agency. this serves to acquire new customers.

human resources services

For a recruitment consultant, we conduct the first telephone interview with new applicants and then assess their suitability.

lead generation

for a software company from boston we generate interested parties by phone and send them a demo access via email.

chat support

for a large online shop we provide a 24h chat service and respond within a maximum of 90 seconds to each new chat request from customers.

arrange appointments

for a management consultant, we try to arrange telephone appointments with new clients. to do this, we make cold calls to the target clients. we also carry out a needs analysis.
